Witchcraft, Demons,
and the Occult

Thursday Evening
October 15, 2015

Glenview Public Library
Community Room

7 PM: Program followed by Refreshments and Conversation

Kickstart your Halloween with a talk celebrating the supernatural in art, music, film, and literature. Lucas Livingston, Assistant Director of Senior Programs in the Department of Museum Education at The Art Institute of Chicago, a very popular speaker, will bring Halloween to life. Macabre monsters have deep roots in cultures across the world. From Faust's devil and Grimm's witches to Japanese demons and hungry ghosts, we will discover a treasure of terrifying traditions beyond Halloween's haunting history. Including "A Witches' Sabbath" in The Art Institute of Chicago and other eerie inspirations, this presentation of the paranormal will shine a light on beings best left lurking in shadows and under the bed.

And among his credentials for tonight's program, despite a dab of color in his wardrobe, Lucas is eternally known as "that guy who always wears black."
